Royalty Rope's New Years Eve 2008 Party - On December 31 Start Your New Years Royally

By Joe Wehinger

Real partiers know that a club is no place to spend New Year's Eve. You've been there, you've done that. It's time for something special. Something unique.

And that's exactly what Royalty Rope's Matt and Sean had in mind when they collaborated with Andre Lowe and designed this year's ultra-exclusive Beverly Hills Mansion Party, an exclusive twelve-hour New Years Eve event (8pm - 8am).

- Catered food by Wolfgang Pucks
- Champagne bar sponsored by Korbel
- Vodka sponsored by Krol Vodka
- Mixers sponsored by Red Bull

Full open bar all night, with every beverage known to man. Four different bars with a total of twelve bartenders. Nope, you're not going to have to wait for a drink....ever.

You're hungry? Yeah, they got food. Good stuff too, Wolfgang Puck who seems to know his way around a kitchen. Served until midnight.

What's that? You wanna dance. No, not really. But your girl wants to dance. So that means you gotta find some music and a dance floor pronto. Luckily, they've got four DJ's and something "very, very unique"

DJ Nick Ansom (mash-ups/electro/house)

DJ Oh-D (hip hop/r& b/funk)

DJ Metric (top 40/rare groove/ "whatever's necessary")

Special Guest DJ with a special friend @ 3am
